On the Cover:

Farewell to Conrail! 1999 is the last year of Conrail before it merges with CSX and Norfolk Southern. The cover photo shows Conrail SD80MACs leading a hopper train.

The 1999 TAMR Directory is an official publication of the Teen Association of Model Railroaders (TAMR). The purposes of the TAMR are to promote, stimulate, foster, and encourage the art and craft of model railroading, the activity of railfanning, and the preservation of the history, science, and technology thereof.

Above: UP SD-60M #6228 leads a westbound doublestack train down the western slope of Cajon Pass in California. Taken in June 1991 by Don Bowen.

HAPPY RAILROADING!!!

The 1999 TAMR Directory is published by the TAMR Department of the Treasury. The directory is intended for the benefit of TAMR members only, and any solicitation of members listed in the directory without the prior written consent of the TAMR is forbidden.
